Editors Notes

Phew – lots on as the weather warms up. Both ferries have been cleaned, serviced, maintained & surveyed ready for the summer weather. This year we could slip the SARATOGA locally which was great – saved lots of travel.

Now don't forget that this month is BREAST CANCER MONTH – lots of good things going on to raise awareness – visit www.pinkribbonbreakfast.org.au <http://www.mcgrathfoundation.com.au/> www.nbcf.org.au

We have lots of events on the water this month – you can go to the Putt Putt Regatta, have dinner at Hardys Bay or catch the ferry to the DAVO for their fabulous growers markets . Next month will also be busy!

For those who love their dogs, the Council will be reviewing the Off Leash Areas soon- fingers crossed.

School holidays are in full swing – don't forget that there are great waterfront playgrounds along the ferry route- picnicking, walking tracks, fishing beaches...just ask the skippers!

Stay safe on the roads – they are dangerous places- catch the ferry instead!!
